

Crown Global Insurance Group Announces New General Counsel

Wilmington, DE – August 25, 2020 – Crown Global Insurance Group LLC announced today that Damien Rios has assumed the roles of Senior Vice President and General Counsel at the firm.

Mr. Rios is a magna cum laude graduate of Harvard University and a graduate of Columbia Law School, with more than 20 years of experience with life insurance and annuities. Prior to joining Crown Global, Mr. Rios was a Special Counsel in Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman, LLP's Estates, Trust & Tax Planning Department and a member of the Private Wealth Group, where he advised wealthy domestic and international clients with respect to complex estate planning, tax matters, business succession planning, asset protection planning and advanced insurance planning.

“We are delighted to have Damien join our team. His experience and expertise greatly strengthens our ability to implement innovative and tax efficient insurance solutions for our clients,” said Perry Lerner, the Chairman and CEO of Crown Global Insurance Group LLC.

Mr. Rios began practicing law at Milbank LLP. As a member of the Trust & Estates department at Milbank, Mr. Rios advised some of the wealthiest individuals in the United States on estate planning, tax matters and insurance planning. He also advised several institutional clients and was extensively involved in the development of financial products.

The Crown Global family of companies is comprised of domestic and offshore insurance companies that issue private placement life insurance and private placement annuity contracts. Crown Global companies work with high-net-worth individuals, institutional clients and investment fund managers to provide innovative insurance solutions with personalized service exceeding each customer's expectations. Crown Global empowers high net worth individuals, institutions and investment fund managers with products and services to enhance their investments.
